"A YOUNG MERLOT"

Vintage 2011
Primary Site:
Napa Valley

Code:

Several years - before she became Playboy zine's first nude centerfold as "Marilyn Monroe" - Norma Jeane Baker was an aspiring wood starlet who became a favorite of photographers.

Label for this 2011 vintage of Norma Jeane - Young Merlot was taken by Hollywood photographer Bruno Bernard, in 1949 at the Palm Springs Racquet Club, with Norma playfully posing on a diving board above shimmering water the color of her bathing suit. It is during this photo shoot that she was introduced to the Hollywood agent Johnny Hyde, who secured a role for her in The Asphalt Jungle, leading to her fame as Marilyn Monroe.

The grapes for this wine were sourced predominantly from the Paso Robles AVA, where Merlot is a leading grape variety, yielding wines often noted for their generosity of flavor, elegance, and balance.
