

Marilyn™

THE VELVET COLLECTION
VINTAGE 2003

One of the most stunning and innovative new wines in recent years debuted in 2004 with the first release of Marilyn's The Velvet Collection.

Now comes the second in this very limited series of superb Napa Valley wine.

The photo that graces this release, taken in 1949 by Tom Kelley, became the Centerfold in the inaugural edition of Playboy magazine published in 1953, launching both the model and the magazine to fame.

The Velvet Collection is acclaimed for:

Stunning 1.5 liter (Magnum) bottle sealed in a handsome presentation box

Limited, numbered bottles

100% Napa Valley wine by John McKay, noted Napa Valley winemaker.

Appellation: Napa Valley 100%
Vineyards: Tom Moore Vineyards
Volker Eisele Vineyards
Blend: Cabernet Sauvignon 55%
Merlot 45%
Vintage: 2003
Aging: French Oak, 1 1/2 years
Alcohol: 14.1%

First-of-its-kind "Peel and Peek" label revealing the original pose.

Each gift box has a removable lid and a clear, sealed cover for display

