

Bring Marilyn Monroe home to dinner this month. The iconic beauty's centerfold photo from the 1953 inaugural issue of Playboy magazine will soon arrive in Northeast Ohio beverage stores splashed across the front of special-edition wine bottles. Discreetly packaged in a handsome box, a wispy wrap covers Marilyn's less-seen parts. Until you get home, that is. And you may just want to hang out with the bottle, given the hefty price tag attached to these Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot vintages. The Velvet Collection 2002 runs $225 for a 1.5-liter bottle in a sealed gift box. You can also pick up a three-bottle wooden-boxed set (consisting of 750ml, 1-liter, and 3-liter bottles) for $1,000. Want to take a peek for yourself? Visit marilynwines.com.
